

PRESS RELEASE

Local artists sought for Easter entertainment

Northampton Town Centre BID will be staging a bonanza of pop up performance and entertainment taking place in locations throughout the town centre on Saturday 4th April.

The event will be presented by Furthest from the Sea and they are looking for dynamic, visual and eclectic musical and non-musical variety performers to entertain the crowds and showcase their skills as part of the event.

So if you're a dancer, singer-songwriter, spoken word artist, individual performer or part of a group looking for share your talents, grow your audience and network with other creative people we would love to hear from you!

In 2015, the BID is again pleased to be commissioning some new events and ensuring the growth and continuation of some existing events by supporting them with funding and promotional contributions.

Our new Discover Northampton series of events promises to capture the imaginations of a wide range of people, with something for everyone, with these events timed to take place during the busy spring and summer months.

If you would like to perform at the event on Saturday 4th April 2015 please contact Northampton Town Centre BID before Tuesday 16th March 2015 on info@northamptonbid.co.uk

-ENDS-